

Peace Operations Training Institute®

Study peace and humanitarian relief any place, any time

Presenting:

The History of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations from 2000–2020

This course gives students an overview of the history of United Nations peace operations between 2000 and mid-2020. It describes major trends and patterns in United Nations peace operations; details of more than 30 United Nations peace operations; “partnership peacekeeping”; guidelines for United Nations peace operations personnel fit for the twenty-first century; and the impacts that United Nations peace operations have had on armed conflict.

Author: Paul D. Williams, PhD

Learning Objectives:

Provide an overview of the major patterns and trends in United Nations peace operations between 2000 and 2020.

Explain the renaissance of United Nations peace operations in the early twenty-first century.

Analyse United Nations peace operations in Eastern and Western Africa, Europe, Asia, the Caucasus, and the Middle East.

Explain how the concept of “stabilization” has been used and some of the key operational and political questions raised by such missions.

Summarize why “partnership peacekeeping” became increasingly common during the twenty-first century and the different types of partnerships involving United Nations peace operations personnel.

Provide an overview of five key initiatives that helped develop guidelines and principles for modern United Nations peace operations.

Summarize the main impacts that United Nations peace operations have on armed conflicts.

Recognize the five enduring themes of twenty-first-century United Nations peace operations.

60.00 USD

Ten lessons
197 pages

14 reading hours

Available in English,
French, and Spanish

Enrol here: <<https://www.peaceopstraining.org/courses/history-of-peacekeeping-2000-2020/>>