

Peace Operations Training Institute®
Study peace and humanitarian relief any place, any time

Presenting:

United Nations Specialised Training Materials on United Nations Police

The aim of these training materials is to provide police-contributing countries with a standardized training package that prepares their officers for duties in United Nations Peace Operations. Upon completing this course, police should be able to perform their police functions in an effective, professional, and integrated manner while demonstrating the core values and competencies of the United Nations. This training applies to all individual police officers (IPOs) selected by Member States who meet the selection criteria set by the DPO Police Division (PD). Eleven lessons.

These course materials have been sourced directly from the United Nations Peacekeeping Resource Hub under a revocable licence issued by the Integrated Training Service.

Learning Objectives:

Understand police command in a United Nations and peacekeeping context.

Identify the basic principles of human rights due diligence and its scope of application.

Recognize the essential elements of community-oriented policing.

Learn the role of intelligence-led policing in peace operations.

Explain the role of police monitoring, mentoring, and advising in police operations.

Understand the purpose and impact of capacity-building and development.

Comprehend the mission and role of police in the protection of civilians.

Define and understand the legal basis and principles of the use of force in law enforcement.

Understand the standard operating procedures of apprehension, arrest, and detention within a human rights framework.

Free for all to enrol

Eleven lessons
243 pages

14 reading hours

Available in English

Enrol here: <https://www.peaceopstraining.org/courses/UNPOL-english-2024/>