Presenting:

Implementation of the UN Security Council Resolutions on the Women, Peace, and Security Agenda in Africa

This course is a practical tool for those supporting the implementation of the women, peace, and security (WPS) agenda in Africa. It explores recent National Action Plans, evolving strategies for enhancing women's political participation, and best practices for gender mainstreaming.

This course was developed by the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN Women) in collaboration with POTI.

Free for all to enrol

Six lessons
195 pages

13 reading hours

Available in English and French

Learning Objectives:

Understand the importance of promoting gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls.

Identify the UN system's main documents and decisions affirming equal rights as they relate to international peace and security.

Understand the conceptual and political framework that led to the passage of UNSCR 1325 (2000) and its importance for promoting a gender perspective in the areas of peace and security.

Understand the ways in which contemporary armed conflict has differential impacts on society.

Understand the importance of addressing gender inequalities in post-conflict reconstruction processes.

Understand the gender dimensions of war and peacemaking in a number of conflicts occurring in Africa.

Understand the priorities and challenges of the various sub-regions and countries in Africa regarding the implementation of the WPS agenda.

Understand the role of women's organizations and other stakeholders in advancing the WPS agenda.

Enrol here: <https://www.peaceopstraining.org/courses/ wps-africa-en-2021 />